Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 08 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry with sunny spells on Thursday, far west cloudier.

Today:
Most places dry and bright with some sunshine at times. However low cloud and mist will affect far western coasts and isles, while cloud will build up inland through the day. Quite warm. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening and night with light winds. Some clear spells inland, particularly across the western central belt. but cloudy around the coasts. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
Some sunny spells in the morning and evening, but cloud building during the day. It will be mostly dry, but a few showers are possible, mainly in the east. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Showers breaking out by day. These often heavy, although western parts drier on Saturday. Shower more widespread on Sunday and Monday. Quite warm in the sunnier spells.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.